

For the Pleasure of Men (A Harem Masters Novel)

How much is a young woman's innocence worth? Born in a small village in the foothills of ancient Athens, and sold into a brothel at the age of 8 by her own father, Kalliope has never known love. Her keeper, Madame Gaia is the closest thing she has to a mother...However, the time comes when Gaia must sell Kalliope's virginity to the highest bidder. The girl is terrified at first, but she knows she must rise to the occasion and accept her life of prostitution. Kalliope flourishes in her craft, men tell tales far and wide of her innocent beauty and raw sex appeal. When a mysterious and powerful client travels all the way from Athens to see her for himself, he is more than pleased. He purchases her and brings her to Athens to be a high class courtesan, exclusively for the Athenian Elite. She enjoys the riches and prestige that being a courtesan to some of the wealthiest men in the world brings. Her life is threatened when a violent and sadistic client takes a special liking to her, he loves to see her in pain and can't stand to see her with anyone but him. Will an unlikely lover come to her rescue and save her from a life of degradation and prostitution? Paid For Pleasure: A Harem Masters Novel is a tale of erotic romance set in the ancient city of Athens, Greece.
