Feisty redhead Mae Weston lives in Fire Gorge, a small Nevada town situated next to a Paiute Indian reservation. She talks too much, reads x-rated magazines and has moments of foolish bravado, but basically, shes a small town girl with good intentions. When robbers become would-be killers, Mae has to shoot or be shot, putting herself in the middle of a criminal investigation. Drake Stillwater is a Paiute whos moved away from life on the reservation. He worked his way through the ranks in the regional security office of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and then found his way to a job as Fire Gorges Police Chief. As Principle Investigator of the robbery and shooting at Maes convenience store, he has to work closely with her. She proves to be difficult, but a spanking calms her down. It also riles her up, leading her to want another, and another. Drake doesnt mind at all. NOTE: This title contains spanking, including where the male character uses it on the female for discipline. It also contains graphic sexual scenes and suggestions. If such content may offend you, please do not buy this book. Book Length: 6 chapters / 27,943 words
