

With Christ in the School of Prayer: Thoughts on Our Training for the Ministry of Intercession (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from With Christ in the School of Prayer: Thoughts on Our Training for the Ministry of Intercession Of all the promises connected with the command, Abide in me, there is none higher, and none that sooner brings the confession, Not that I have already attained, or am already made perfect, than this: If ye abide in me, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Power with God is the highest attainment of the life of full abiding. And of all the traits of a life like Christ there is none higher and more glorious than conformity to Him in the work that now engages Him without ceasing in the Fathers presence - His all-prevailing intercession. The more we abide in Him, and grow unto His likeness, will His priestly life work in us mightily, and our life become what His is, a life that ever pleads and prevails for men. Thou hast made us kings and priests unto God. Both in the king and the priest the chief thing is power, influence, blessing. In the king it is the power coming downward; in the priest, the power rising upward, prevailing with God. In our blessed Priest-King, Jesus Christ, the kingly power is founded on the priestly He is able to save to the uttermost, because He ever liveth to make intercession.
